Health & Safety

All event organizers are responsible for reviewing the McMaster Emergency Guidebook.

The purpose of the McMaster Emergency Guidebook is to provide McMaster faculty and staff with a clear, concise and up-to-date safety resource to help them to prepare for and deal with emergencies. While emergencies are typically unpredictable, we hope to provide foundational health and safety knowledge that can assist our faculty and staff in times of crisis. Being prepared and informed can be critical when urgent action is needed, and the McMaster Emergency Guidebook has been compiled with this in mind.
